THE DAILY NEWS.

Newport:

FRIDAY APRIL 28, 1848.

BY O. P. JACKSON, 97-THAMES-ST.

Advertisers will please bear in mind that the circulation of the DAILY NEWS is more than DOUBLE that of the Daily Herald, and greater than the combined circulation of the Daily and Weekly Herald. As one proof of this fact, the list of Letters remaining in the Post-Office is advertised in the NEWS, as BY LAW REQUIRED.

MOUNT VERNON.—A proposition is before Congress for the purchase of Mount Vernon, the sacred spot on which is interred the remains of George Washington; the very mention of whose name, even, sends a thrill through the heart of every American. It is proposed that this purchase shall be made with funds from the public treasury, and that it shall ever be open to the visit and inspection of the public. Numerous petitions to this effect have already been presented to Congress, and one for this purpose is now to be found at the United States Hotel, in this town, which has already received the names of many of our citizens. The petition was received a few days since, from the Hon. S. C. Greene, one of our Senators, with a request that it be returned early in May, so that those who wish to put their names to it, and we hope none will neglect it, should do it at once.

The arrival of the steamship America, which was to sail from Liverpool on the 15th inst., is looked for with deep interest; as it is expected that she will bring important news from England and Ireland. Great excitement prevailed in England among the "powers that be," on the sailing of the Acadia in regard to Ireland.—The following extract from an English paper, is a proof of this:

In consequence of the alarming excitement existing in the metropolis, it was deemed necessary to remove the Queen from London to the Isle of Wight! Accordingly, her majesty, although not recovered from her recent accouchement, was removed from Buckingham Palace on Friday, April 7th. The day was cold, wet, and uncomfortable, but there was no time for delay. Cabinet meetings were held daily, and ministers, it is alleged, scarcely know how to act. Intelligence has been received by the government, from secret agents, of a general arming in Ireland, and concert of action between the English Chartist and Repealers. All the government establishments and all loyalists in Dublin and London have been provided with arms and ammunition. On Thursday, April 6th, the immense stock of guns, pistols and swords, which have been kept at the Tower, were distributed throughout London.—

The meeting in Independence square, Philadelphia, Monday, called by the mayor, to express sympathy with the French republic, was exceedingly large and enthusiastic. Three platforms were erected, for English, German and French speakers. Mayor Blesterling, of the Northern Liberties, presided.

The reduced rates of postage at New Orleans have greatly increased the receipts. The postages collected in the quarter ending March 31st, 1848, were $27,083. The same quarter in 1847, $21,115. Increase nearly $6000.

It is reported that the Turkish government, under the influence of the Russian ambassador, refuses to acknowledge the French republic.

The Hon. John H. Clarke, of this State, has introduced a resolution into the Senate instructing the Library Committee to inquire if the library which belonged to Washington is for sale.

RIO GRANDE.—The Rio Grande of February 8 contains a long account of a detected conspiracy among the slaves throughout the province, [the Brazilian province of the Rio Grande] to rise upon their masters and put them all to death.—

The story is not very clear, or as we judge, very reliable. Agency in the plot, for instance, is ascribed to Oribe and Rosas, which induces a suspicion that the publication has a political motive and origin; besides, it appears that the whole account rests on the vaguely reported confessions of two or three slaves, which may or may not be true to some extent, but probably are much distorted and exaggerated.

The Illinois and Michigan Canal has been opened, and Lake Michigan is now united to the Father of Rivers—the great Mississippi! One hundred guns were fired at Chicago in honor of the event.

RELIEF FOR YUCATAN.—A fund is being raised in New Orleans to send a cargo of corn meal to the sufferers at Yucatan, from the Indian devastation.

surest indication of peace that we can find in our papers by this arrival. It is said that a bill was to be pushed through both Houses of Parliament, on Friday night, to meet the exigency of the times, if not "too late."

The New London Morning News establishment has been purchased of Mr. Dolbear by C. F. Daniels, (late its editor,) and F. H. Bacon. It is with a good deal of reluctance that we part with Mr. Dolbear from the editorial fraternity but we hope soon to see him at the head of some other newspaper establishment; this we hardly expect to realize though, as he expressed to us some time since, a strong desire to quit, forever, all connection with newspapers,—a perfect slave's life.

The new proprietors have our best wishes for their success.

SHAVING.—"Shaving" in trade, and shaving a man's face have no connection whatever,—they are two distinct kinds of business, but it requires experience and discretion to do either so that the subject will not know it. Gorton Anderson never "shaves" in trade—never—but he is a successful shaver of men's faces; and, too, he has one of the neatest shops that is to be found in the seven contes. He keeps all kinds of toilet articles, cosmetics, and every thing pertaining to the head, except brains, and the demand for them being too small in this community to warrant his keeping them.—A man cannot appreciate the worth or see the necessity of a thing he never possessed.

MAJOR EDWARD WEBSTER.—The remains of the late Major Edward Webster are now on board of bark Chief, which was expected to sail from Vera Cruz on the 1st inst.; her arrival at Boston is hourly expected. The preparations of the Bostonians for rendering distinguished honors to the remains of the gallant Major, are very extensive and imposing. They will be interred in the family vault of his father, the Senator, under St. Paul's Church, Tremont street.

THE WRECK OF THE NIAGARA.—The wrecking of this fine steamer at the mouth of Genesee river, in the late storm, was the cause of a great amount of suffering among the passengers—about one hundred in number—from which they could not be extricated sooner than 24 hours, and which very narrowly escaped being fatal to the whole of them. The value of the vessel was $60,000, and she was without insurance. Total loss near $100,000.

The meeting in Independence square, Philadelphia, Monday, called by the mayor, to express sympathy with the French republic, was exceedingly large and enthusiastic. Three platforms were erected, for English, German and French speakers. Mayor Blesterling, of the Northern Liberties, presided.

The reduced rates of postage at New Orleans have greatly increased the receipts. The postages collected in the quarter ending March 31st, 1848, were $27,083. The same quarter in 1847, $21,115. Increase nearly $6000.

It is reported that the Turkish government, under the influence of the Russian ambassador, refuses to acknowledge the French republic.

The Hon. John H. Clarke, of this State, has introduced a resolution into the Senate instructing the Library Committee to inquire if the library which belonged to Washington is for sale.

RIO GRANDE.—The Rio Grande of February 8 contains a long account of a detected conspiracy among the slaves throughout the province, [the Brazilian province of the Rio Grande] to rise upon their masters and put them all to death.—

The story is not very clear, or as we judge, very reliable. The Illinois and Michigan Canal has been opened, and Lake Michigan is now united to the Father of Rivers—the great Mississippi! One hundred guns were fired at Chicago in honor of the event.

RELIEF FOR YUCATAN.—A fund is being raised in New Orleans to send a cargo of corn meal to the sufferers at Yucatan, from the Indian devastation.

CONGRESSIONAL.—In the Senate, Tuesday, Mr. Cuse, Chairman of the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a bill directing the Secretary of War to purchase 5000 of Colt's repeating pistols for the use of the army.

The California Claim bill was taken up by a vote of yeas 24, nays 9.

The first thing in order was the amendment reported by the Military Committee, which was read and discussed. No action.

In the House nothing of importance transpired.

In the Senate, Wednesday, Mr. Bell's resolution to furnish every member of the House with a copy of Houston's reports was taken up, and Mr. Bell spoke in its favor as an act of courtesy towards the House. The vote was then taken, and the resolution passed.

Mr. Badger submitted a resolution instructing the committee on the library to purchase Brown's portrait of General Taylor, if it could be procured at a reasonable price. Laid over.

Mr. Hale asked for a vote on the motion to introduce his riot bill.

Mr. Benton moved to take up the bill relating to the California claims, which was agreed to, 39 to 7. Mr. Mason moved to amend the amendment by striking out that part appointing Col. Fremont, and substituting a board of commissioners to be appointed by the President.

On motion of Mr. Badger the Senate then went into executive session, after which it adjourned.

In the House, a message was received from the President communicating the correspondence between Gen. Scott and Secretary Marcy, which was ordered to be printed. Several bills were reported.

The bill of Mr. Burt, to repeal the act of last congress giving to the President the discretion, when the army was reduced at the termination of the war, to retain the old or new generals, was debated by Messrs. Houston, of Alabama, Stanton, Burt, Holmes, of South Carolina, and Botts.

Mr. McLane made a motion to lay it on the table, which was taken by yeas and nays, and was lost. The bill lies over.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.—A friend has handed us a copy of the El Americano Libre, from which we make the following extract, which, no doubt, will be read with deep interest?

El domingo, se nos ha dicho, tendran efecto las elecciones de esta ciudad; y vere mos la ceremonia panteonistica del retiro de los tropas a la murala, por supuesto con el comandante general Wilson a la cabeza. Dias vendrán a los autores del tal proyecto llamado armisticio.

Mr. Thomas Baxter King, of Georgia, the Chairman of the House Committee on Naval Affairs, has in course of preparation a bill to order the construction of twenty naval brigs of from 450 to 500 tons burthen. This is a project of his own.—The Secretary of the Navy is understood to have no means to approve it. It is also condemned, we understand, by nearly all connected with the service now at head quarters. The Secretary advises that the necessary increase shall be in vessels of a different and larger class.

A duel was on the tapis, in South Brooklyn, last week, between two promising young gentlemen in high life. There was a lady in the case, as usual. A challenge was given and accepted, seconds were chosen, and the distance measured in Douglass street Park, when lo! the "old gentlemen" appeared and stopped "that ball."—It is said that birch rods were freely used in two splendid mansions in South Brooklyn, that evening.

LOW WATER.—The waters of Lake Erie are said to be 15 inches lower than ever before known by the oldest inhabitants.

HUTCHINSON, THE MINT DEFaulTER.—A new bill of indictment has been found against this man, and he has been remanded to the debtor's prison.

SMALL COIN.—Mr. Niles has introduced a bill in Congress to abolish cents and introduce a coin half the value of a half dime or two and a half cents. It will not answer. The poor must have a small coin for small objects not of a higher value than one cent. An immense variety of articles are purchased for one cent—newspapers for example—and we cannot, under any circumstances, dispense with it. We presume the bill will not pass.

Mr. Shipman J. M. Ford, (of South Carolina,) has resigned his appointment.—A short time previous, on being refused leave to go on shore from his ship, then lying in the harbor of Norfolk, Va., meeting Lieut. Richard Forrest of the Navy, he attacked him with a bowie knife, wounding him in the hand severely. Though this affair was not officially reported to the Department, it was probably at the bottom of his resignation.

"I won't be bled, and I won't die."—Such were the memorable words of a celebrated English duchess to her physician, who supposed her on her death bed. She kept her word, and lived to a great age.

NEWPORT VICTUALING HOUSE.

W. W. MORRIS, announces to the public, that he has opened a Victualing House in the premises lately occupied by Thomas Sherman, in Market Square, where he intends to be supplied with the best Oysters, Meat of every kind, Pastry, Cakes, &c. MOST EXTRAORDINARY WORK; THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION.

By Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of the Diseases of Women.

Sixth ed., 18mo, pp. 250. Price $1.

Fifteen thousand copies sold in three months!

Years of suffering, physical and mental anguish to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by timely possession of this work.

It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly. Truly, knowledge is power. It is health, happiness, affluence.

The revelations contained in its pages have proved a blessing to thousands, as the innumerable letters received by the author will attest. Here, also, every female can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

On the receipt of One Dollar, the "Married Woman's Private Medical Companion" will be sent (mailed free) to any part of the U. S. All letters must be addressed, post paid, to Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Box 121, New York City. Publishing Office, 129 Liberty street, New York.

To enable Mankind to Die of Old Age without Disease.—The public may not be aware that the Rev. B. Hibbard's Vegetable Pills are the very best Family Medicine extant; perfectly reliable in every emergency. No one can foresee the moment when they or their children may be attacked. Disease comes like a thief in the night, and in times of peril, anxiety and danger, it is a relief to the mind to have at hand a remedy so certain, prompt, and efficient in warding off as well as curing disease. Ship Fever, Typhus Fever, Congreve and Bilious Diseases are rampant throughout the land. To travellers, emigrants, soldiers, and families, we say neglect not to provide yourself with so potent a physician of the blood; so safe, mild, and universal a remedy as these sovereign Vegetable Pills. Remember the name of Rev. B. Hibbard is on the label of each box. All others are spurious. T. H. Hibbard, M. D., 96 John-st. New York, proprietor. See advertisement in another column.

APR 29

BEWARE OF SUGAR COATED COUNTERFEITS.—Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of William Wright on the top label of each box.

JONES'S SOAP.

Advise in the country and watering places, see how the sun has burnt your faces!

Look at your necks—how yellow, dark with tan

Why, 'twill repulse the love of any man!

Those freckles, too, you know they'd quickly fly

If Jones's Soap you'd use; come once—do try—

It costs but fifty cents, and I am told

It's worth, ay, doubly worth, its weight in gold.

Persons who have had no faith in it, have been astounded at the wonderful effects of Jones —that is, the genuine Jones's Soap—in beautifying the skin. For sale by Dr. R. J. Taylor.

AGENT FOR THE CANTON & PEKIN TEA COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

THIS Company, although it cannot boast of being "the oldest Tea Establishment in America," does claim to have sold during the two years of its existence, more good, pure, and unimpaired Teas, and at lower prices, than any other similar establishment in the United States.

The following is a list of their retail prices, which will be found to be nearly the same as those of similar Companies. The only difference they claim is in the

Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.

(Office No 21 Wall-st, N. Y.)

A 15-cent a year by the System of Life Insurance now in successful operation in this company.

1st. Those in good health, of the proper age, and of sound constitution, will be insured at the lowest rate of premiums.

2d. The premium, if over $50, can be paid one-fourth in cash, and three-fourths in a secured note at 12 months, bearing 6 per cent. interest, and subject to assessments if required, or it may be paid weekly, monthly, or quarterly.

3d. Annual division of profits in scrip certificates which bear 6 per cent. interest, and if required a loan of two-thirds on the scrip will be made in cash—or the profits can be added to increase the sum insured.

4th. No persons are liable beyond the amount of their premium.

5th. Married women may insure the lives of their husbands, secure from any demands of their creditors, if the premium does not exceed $300 per annum.

6th. Creditors may insure their debtors; or debtors themselves, for the protection of creditors.

7th. An insurance can be made so that the sum insured will be paid on attaining a specified age, or so-not in the event of death.

8th. All claims on policies will be paid three months after notice and proof of death.

9th. No risk will be taken on any one life exceeding $5000, until the surplus profits amount to $50,000; then the amount of risk on a single life will be gradually extended as the funds of the Company augment.

10th. No Director or Officer can obtain a loan of the Company.

11th. When the net profits of the Company amount to $200,000, the excess will be applied towards the redemption of Scrip, giving priority to that first issued: but the amount of $200,000, in addition to the reinsurance fund, will be kept as a permanent fund, in which the members have a pro rata interest.

12th. The funds of the Company to be invested by the Finance Committee in bonds and first mortgages on unencumbered real estate, the actual value of which is twice the amount loaned—or in stocks of the United States, or of the States of N. York, New Jersey, Massachusetts, and Maine, or loaned to members on their Scrip.

13th. No part of the profits is withheld, or diverted from the assured in any way.

14th. There is no stock or loan, either nominal or real, to pay interest for; the company having ample capital in the premiums received.

15th. It enables a man to provide for a wife and children, in such a way, that although he may lose all, they are safe; and all persons, whether married or unmarried, to provide for old age, sickness, and want, as well as for death.

16th. It does not reckon the assured a year older than he is—but from six months less, to six months more; so as to equalize the same between all parties.

17th. It pays no directors, auditors, or solicitors.

18th. A portion of the directors and the officers are chosen yearly, and the members vote according to interest.

19th. The assured can surrender the policy at any time after a term of years, and receive its equitable value.

20th. Every precaution is taken to prevent a forfeiture of policy.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, is authorized by its charter to make all and every insurance appertaining to or connected with Life risks, of whatsoever kind or nature, and will grant annuities and make endowments, as by the Act of Incorporation, passed the 30th January, 1845.

The Directors of this Company, deeply impressed with the very great, useful, and growing importance to the community at large of Life Insurance, would call the attention of the public to the following observations and principles, as intended to explain to them its peculiar advantages, and the particular features of this valuable institution. It is seen above how extensive the privileges are, relating to every risk appertaining to or connected with life; guarding and supporting infancy to old age, in all grades of professions and trades; orphans, widows and their children, by a small annual investment, on the principle of Mutual Benefits, arising from Mutual Insurance, being a self-protective society. In this there is no Money Stock; the funds or capital arise from premiums paid in when persons make insurance, and these form the means to make payments on policies, grant loans, pay expenses, and yield profits. All persons insured become members, but are not liable beyond the amount of the premiums to be paid by them. The books of the company are open to them, to see that the sums paid, or securities received, are deposited or invested according to the charter, and the net profits, at fixed periods, are divided among them, as hereafter explained. The table of figures, and the rules, are made and calculated with accuracy, after the experience and practice of old English companies, and all persons can see by them how much they have to pay, and the sums they will be likely to receive. This plan partakes of the Savings Bank and Mutual Interests, affording the security of the one, and gain of the other, and is entirely benevolent in its operations; it also embraces a provision for Married Women to insure the lives of their husbands for any amount, the premium of which shall not exceed $300 per annum, and is secured to them against any demands in law, or creditors.

The greatest portion of society, who by daily exertions of industry earn support, as artisans and mechanics, deriving livelihood from personal labor and skill, seldom resort to Life Insurance, in any numbers, for a future provision for their families, though to none would it be as important as to them, who, by sickness and death, may, in a day, leave those nearest and dearest to them in poverty. To men in mercantile pursuits, and those in professional business of every rank and class, or those who have uncertain or small incomes, and who are most numerous in wealth in the aggregate, and have it in their power to provide against the vicissitudes they are constantly exposed to, Life Insurance is also of the utmost importance; they, and those in lower circumstances, are often deterred from entering into contracts of insurance, as the advantages appear remote—being contingent on death, or ability to pay the premiums.

To assist all such, this Mutual Benefit society so arranges the payment of the premiums, and of returns in part of the same, as to enable all persons to become members, and enjoy its advantages while living; thus protecting themselves in life, and providing for their families after their death; in this way a short life may obtain, and leave to their benefit a long one.

This Company will grant insurance on lives, on the Mutual principle, to applicants upon their own lives, or the lives of others, for the whole duration of life, or for a limited period, at the rates specified in the tables, for sound and healthy persons.—Also, any person in sound health may insure $500 for life upon his own or his wife's life, or the wife upon the life of her husband, of the age of thirty years, (and in like proportions for other ages,) by paying 25 cents weekly, or on $1000 by paying 50 cents weekly, the policy always remaining with the Company, with the premiums paid endorsed thereon; and in case of death they will be entitled to the amount thus insured, deducting therefrom the balance remaining of weekly payments, with interest, for the current year. No risk will be taken on a single life for more than $5,000, until the profits of the Company amount to $50,000, after which, according to the profits, the amount will be gradually extended to a sum not exceeding $15,000.

The better to enable all persons to insure, the Company will annually issue Scrip certificates, of estimated profits, bearing interest at 6 per cent.—Whenever the accumulation of net profits of the Company shall exceed the sum of $200,000, the excess may be applied from year to year, or semi-annually thereafter, towards the redemption of each year's certificates of scrip, in whole or in part, as may be determined on by the board of directors, priority to be given to the scrip first issued. The insured may borrow from the Company on his scrip, two-thirds of the amount of the same at any time, which will enable him to use a portion of his profits for the payment of his annual premium, even before the redemption of the scrip. All classes of persons will thus be admitted and enabled to meet the premiums, and have the gain of the Savings Bank, with the profit on a large business, by an actual small investment or outlay of money.

All claims for insurance will be paid three months after satisfactory evidence of the death of the persons deceased is exhibited and approved.

Should it any time be desirable for a person to sell his policy, where it is for life, the Company will purchase the same at an equitable rate.

Parties insured at the table rates of premiums, are not to pass south of the Southern line of Virginia and Kentucky, or east of the Mississippi River, between the first day of June and first day of November; but can visit any part of the United States or Northern British Provinces, between the first of November and first of June. By the payment of an extra premium, insurances can be effected by persons who desire to reside South during the interdicted time.

All persons whose lives are insured by this company, are permitted to travel on any of the regular mail routes, (within the limits prescribed in the policy) or on any of the Northern or Upper Lakes, by steamboat or other common mode of conveyance.

Extra hazardous risks will be taken on persons going out, or residing out of the limits of the policy, and embracing all parts of the world; also on all persons going to sea, and such other risks as may be specially agreed for, being more hazardous, to be expressed in their policies. The extra premiums to be computed upon equitable principles.

Insurances will be made on the lives of Military and Naval Officers, off or on duty, in time of peace, the premium to be settled according to circumstances of climate, locality, &c., as they may be more or less hazardous.

What can better illustrate the wise disposition of the Supreme Being, in the varying term of human life, than the certainty of the general laws that regulate its duration, and the reflection that arises from the contemplation of these laws operating constantly upon the human race? Life Insurance then rests upon the simple fact, that every individual of the human race has, at the period of his birth, a certain term of existence, which he will live through, or what is called the mean duration, or expectation of life at birth.

It is a question how such term of existence, or mean duration, is found. This is done simply by taking the number of years that have been lived through by a party from birth to death, and also of 1000 others born at the same time, and dying at all ages from 1 to 100 years old—the number of years thus lived by each person is added into one sum and being divided by the number of persons, the mean duration of the life of man is ascertained.

If they were found on trial, that on taking the result of the lives of 1,000 or 10,000 individuals, and deducing the mean duration, and then going through the same process with like numbers, and the mean duration of the latter differed widely from the former, it would be to no purpose to follow out experiments: but this is not the fact, and in nothing is the uniformity of the general laws of nature more powerfully exemplified, than in regulating the period of human existence. The result of experience is constant, that two bodies of individuals, each of 1000, living in the same country, and of similar occupations, have each a period of mean duration, which differs only a trifle from that of the other body. Apply this to insurance on life in the same body of persons; they pay a small sum or premium, annually, and the office, or Company, agrees to pay them annually a profit, and a certain sum at the death of each; as, for example, the average expectancy of life is found by experience, to be of a person in health of 25 years, 38 years more; and of 40 years 23 years longer; then by the tables of rates, the first has to pay $20 40-100 a year during his life, to secure $1000 to be paid to his wife or children after his death; the second pays $32, to insure the same; then taking the gain of interest, and other items, that make up the profits on Mutual Benefits, it is almost certain the amount of $1000 insured will be much increased, when in the end it is to be paid to his heirs, all which is firmly established by the facts of experience. Life Insurance, therefore, on Mutual Benefits, is not a fictitious scheme to draw people into, for money-making purposes. Such an idea, if it exists, is most incorrect, and dissolved at once by the very fact, that this is a Mutual Benefit Company, and consequently any person taking out a policy, becomes a member by a small annual payment, and has a joint interest in its concerns, and a voice in its management.—Founded on scientific principles, exemplified by experience, its real services, then to all classes of persons, who are dependent on certain incomes, or salaries, professions, mechanical skill, or daily labor cannot be denied; and it has proved essentially beneficial to the families of such in event of death, and is therefore an institution ranking among the noblest works of benevolence in the world.

Such being the equitable and beneficial principles on which Mutual Life Insurance is established, it presents a most suitable and favorable means of providing for the endeared and dependent lives of children; for what is the situation of a man, who, for the gratification of his affection, surrounds himself with a wife and children, and lives in the enjoyment of those valued blessings, and knowing that in an instant, the cessation of his life may throw them into a state of destitution! The neglect, then, of such a cheap and certain provision, is gross improvidence; for it is not mere a man's absolute duty, to provide while he lives the daily bread for his family, than it is against leaving them to suffer penurious misery in the event of his death. It is then a religious as well as moral duty, to be easily accomplished by weekly, monthly, or yearly earnings—and this Life Insurance of Mutual Benefits, is the protection against such dreadful evils.

The observations and explanations above made on the principles of Life Insurance generally, and particularly the great and very superior advantages exhibited to the public by insuring in this Mutual Benefit Company, the credit which policies will give to men in trade, the gain it may be to all classes in their business vocations, and the duty of all to provide for their families, should induce every person to give this subject a careful consideration, remembering the injunction of Scripture, that "if any prove not for his own, and especially for them of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel."

SAFE, CHEAP AND EFFECTIVE.—

This medicine makes no pretensions to miraculous powers, the raising of the dead, or to immense and astounding sales daily and hourly, after the most approved method of the times; but bases all its claims upon plain common sense principles, as a simple aid to nature in restoring the human system to its proper tone and action, when by carelessness or unavoidable circumstances it has become deranged or debilitated, and asks simply a faithful trial as a test of its curative properties.—During the last twenty years it has worked its way into extensive use, wholly upon its own merits, by commendation from individual to individual, not having been advertised for more than twelve years till within the past few months—saw occasionally in a journal of which the present proprietor is Editor. The increasing demand, however, has measurably compelled greater attention to its business, and agencies are now being established throughout the country.

A faithful trial of a half dollar or dollar package is almost certain to secure use in every family where it is introduced, where medicine is needed.

The undersigned has used it in his own family for more than fifteen years—has knowledge of its approved use in many others, (for periods varying from months to fifteen or sixteen years,) as their only medicine, and knows it to be valuable in most of the complaints incident to the human system.

But a long or extravagant commendation is not designed or needed here. Ten thousand mere assertions in its favor will not make it valuable, or satisfy reasonable persons without a trial; for the proof, after all, must lie in the use of it. Try it, then. Read, try, and then judge.
